Fredericksburg Horse Show.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., June 17.— The coming Horse Show to be held in this city July 12th and 13th, is attracting unusual attention. The most prominent owners of high-bred horses of the various classes of driving and jumping, will have their exhibits here, many of whom have already forwarded their entries.

Prominent men from different parts of the State have signified their intention of being present and with good weather, probably the largest crowd ever gathered at an open air show in the State, will be in evidence here to enjoy the splendid programme of riding, hunting and jumping classes, as well as flat races, with two beautiful steeplechases each day. A spirited four-in-hand contest is already assured and it is believed every class will be well filled. The railroad and steamboat lines will give special rates from all points for the occasion.

LETTER TO JOHN T. WILSON, Richmond, Va.

Dear Sir: You want a cheap job of paint for a cheap house, don't you?
It's Devoc. It's the regular thing in Devoc; there's nothing, in all paint, so cheap as Devoc.
Oh, yes, you can point with mud; but that isn't paint; you want it to look about right for a month or two.

there's nothing so cheap; say nothing o wear, there's nothing so cheap as Devoce It goes so far; gave gallons; no matter about the price, gave gallons. A gallon of paint, put-on, costs $4 or $5; save gallons.

Devoe is your paint; save gallons; Devoe is your paint. Yours truly Bath County Supervisors Inspect Site for a New Courthouse.

Site for a New Courthouse.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WARM SPRINGS, VA., June 17.—Dr.
George Mayse, of Malone, Tex., is visiting his sister. Mre. Ellen McDaunald.
Dr. Mayse was reared in Bath county and went to Texas when a young man. This is his first visit here in thirty-five years.
Mr. S. B. McClung, now of Pendleton county, W. Va., is at the home of his relative, Mr. A. II. Silling ton, McClung, Va. He was born and raised in this county and had not visited here for thirty years. The many improvements since his visit here are of much interest to lim.
The supervision this week inspected new lots upon which to creet a new court house. The building will be moved about one-half mile from the present site, Mrs. Charles Javins, who was recently severely burned from the explosion of a lamp, died this week.
